Six Great Blows by Allied Armies - 45,000 prisoners taken since Thursday. The whole battle front in the West is ablaze. Six great attacks have been made, the attacks are:

In Flanders – British and Belgian

St Quentin region – British and Americans

Cambrai region – British.

S.W. of Leon – French

West of Argonne – French.

East of Argonne – American.

Bulgaria's distress – The plea for armistice – Allies only conditions. The Bulgarian plenipotentiaries have arrived at Salonica and were received by General d'Esperey. They have been informed of the Allies' terms to withdraw immediately and surrender arms or join with the Allies against the Germans and Turks. Meanwhile the British and Greeks are marching on.

The Turkish Rout – In Palestine, Allenby is nearing Damascus and improving his glorious success against the Turks. His troops have crossed the Jordan south of Damascus. Another British Force has moved south along the Hedjaz Railway, to push the Turkish army north. 50,000 prisoners and 325 guns have been taken.

Germany stricken with fear. The Socialist paper quotes "Then we German people stand alone against British, French, Italians, American and their auxiliary forces, and are fighting with our backs against the wall and ruin before our eyes." – We must make peace as soon as possible.

Germans leave Romania. According to information from Swiss circles, the Germans have begun to withdraw their occupation troops from Romania.

Allies' Minimum Peace Terms. M.Clemenceau has put forward terms of peace. The first thing was that Germany would never again start a war of conquest.

Belgium would have to be restored. Alsace Lorraine to be given up to France. Italy must get all regions where Italians predominated, and Greece, Romania, Serbia and Montenegro be restored to their former positions and guaranteed territorial integrity. Constantinople must become an international city under the Allies' administration and the maximum compensation must be extracted from the enemy.

Allies' captures since July 18. Summing up the general results of recent fighting the Echo de Paris says: "The total prisoners taken at the front since July 18th exceeds 200,000. 3,000 guns and 20,000 machine-guns have been taken. These figures do not include prisoners taken in Palestine and Macedonia.

The American Army was held up for a time owing to the breaking of a bridge, and decided not to go for a machine gunner with the rifle as it was not magnificent and not war.

Versailles Decision.

Mr Lloyd George made a statement in the House of Commons that complete agreement has been reached as to the terms of the German Armistice. The conclusions have been transmitted to the United States.

Drastic Terms to Austria. The Prime Minister at the same time outlined the terms given to Austria: Immediate cessation of all hostilities, troops to be withdrawn. All invaded territories to be evacuated. Allies to have free movement and to occupy strategic points in Austria-Hungary.

Complete evacuation of German troops within 16 days from all fronts and immediate repatriation of prisoners of war.

Naval Conditions: The surrender of 15 Austro-Hungarian submarines and all German submarines, three battleships, three light cruisers, nine destroyers, twelve torpedo-boat destroyers and six monitors.

Big German Retreat – Retirement of 70 mile front. The advance of the British Armies though retarded by bad weather was continued through Monday night and on Tuesday. Le Quesroy (with 1,000 men) fell into the hands of the New Zealanders. Our troops have defeated 25 German Divisions. The French attack resumed on Tuesday morning. A severe defeat was inflicted upon six enemy divisions, 4,000 prisoners and six guns being captured. The Americans have reached the western outskirts of Stenay over the Meuse and have crossed the river at Pouilly. The German army has fallen back in a fairly orderly fashion.

German Home Front Cracking. An appeal signed by Prince Max was issued making an urgent plea for the German people to remain united.

White Flag delegates. President Wilson replied to the Germans' request for armistice terms with two modifications, – The Allies reserve complete freedom of the seas, - They will require Germany to make compensation for all damage done to civilian properties by their aggression. The request was made that Germany must ask for terms of armistice under a white flag.

Still Yielding to Pressure.

Huns continue to fall back. Despite heavy rain and sodden ground the British – Forces continued to make good progress on Wednesday all along the front. The Americans gave the enemy no respite. French troops made a further important advance on Wednesday amounting to six miles and the enemy was completed to retreat.

GREAT WAR ENDS – The Armistice signed.

On Monday morning the Prime Minister made the following announcement. The armistice was signed at 5 am this morning Hostilities to cease on all fronts at 11 am.

Kaiser abdicates, and he and his family fled to Holland. The King of Bavaria has fled from Munich, the Kingdom of Wurtemberg has given place to a Republic. A host of other princes and Grand Dukes seem to share a similar fate. The stage is full of chaos and everywhere the Red Flag is flying.

Kaiser's downfall. Five thrones lost in a day.

King William II took the only course open to him by renouncing the throne of the German Empire and Prussia on Saturday. Other German sovereigns who have lost their thrones are King of Bavaria, King of Wurtemberg, Duke of Brunswick and the King of Saxony.

A revolutionary government. Germany is now in the hands of the revolutionaries marshalled by the Socialist parties. The New People's Government was initiated. A general Strike was decided upon and all factories were at a standstill.

Hour of Triumph Mr Lloyd George delivered a victory speech at the Lord Mayor's banquet where he declared that the issue was settled.

Kaiser the Arch-Villain – the Chronicle newspaper declared that the Kaiser was an arch-villain.

German Navy Revolt. It was revealed that the German Navy had been ordered out as a last desperate gamble but they did not come out as they realised it was not a good cause.

Farmers in Gloucester were advised not to give up the breeding of livestock, and to make sure that all arable land is cultivated to the full.

Bridgwater Mercury November 1918. Bridgwater and the War.

Reception of the Glorious news in Bridgwater. There were scenes of wild enthusiasm tempered by a feeling of devout thankfulness that the warfare had been brought to a triumphant conclusion. The atmosphere was electrical and Union Jacks were displayed from upstairs windows. Sirens and hooters began to sound. Work was suspended nearly everywhere. All were determined to celebrate victory. The bells rang out from St Mary's and the streets were thronged with people. On Penel Orlieu dancing was indulged in, a piano being brought from the Empire Theatre. In the afternoon a procession of the B.C. Christy Band rendered national airs. An impromptu concert was given on the Cornhill, and short speeches were delivered, the theme being of deep gratitude.

Additional information was posted on the Mercury window that the Canadians had achieved a final and dramatic victory.

Impressive thanksgiving services were held on Monday at St Mary's, Holy Trinity and Congregational Church. The thanksgiving service at St John's Church will take place on Thursday evening.

The Mayor gave a speech on the Cornhill shortly after the news came through on Monday morning, accompanied by many cheers.

The news was presented to the Magistrates Court whilst they were dealing with a prosecution order, but proceedings were interrupted for an announcement to be made and the case was adjourned for another day.

Influenza epidemic has incurred a heavy death toll.

Wembdon. Less than half an hour after the announcement that the armistice had been signed the church bells commenced ringing a merry peal., and a thanksgiving service had been arranged.
