

A LIST OF THE ELECTORS

Who polled at BRIDGEWATER, April the 17th, 1754.

Candidates The Right Hon. Earl of EGMONT,
The Right Hon. GEORGE DODINGTON,
ROBERT BALCH, Esq;

This LIST is published in Justice and Honour to the virtuous and glorious uncorrupted ELECTORS of this Borough, who made so noble a Stand at the late Election, against all the base Attempts of Men, not content to be corrupt and venial Themselves, but malignant enough to be the Instruments of corrupting and deluding Others. A noble Stand indeed! And what must add to their Honour, is, That in Support of so good and just a Cause, they bore their own Expences, at their Weekly Clubs, from the Time their noble Candidate declared for the Borough, to the Day of the Election. But as some malicious Suggestions have been thrown out to asperge the Characters of those honest Electors with the Imputation of Bribery, and thereby reduce them to an equal Degree of Infamy with the Corrupted Themselves, the Propagators of such Falsities are publicly called upon and defied to produce a single Instance in Proof of such vile Infamies.

N. This Letter denotes such as promised to vote for Lord EGMONT, but voted against him.

P.N. These Letters denote such as formed an invitation to Lord BENTLEY, but before defected him.
